A shareholder may appoint a single person to represent him/her at the EGMS and OGMS. The attorney enjoys the same rights to speak and ask questions at the EGMS and OGMS that the shareholder whom he/she represents would enjoy. To be appointed attorney, the respective person must have legal competence .

If a shareholder is represented by a credit institution providing custody services, it will be able to vote at the EGMS and OGMS based on the voting instructions received by electronic communication means, without the shareholder having to give a special or general power of attorney in this respect. The custodian will vote at the EGMS and OGMS exclusively according to and within the limit of the instructions received from its clients having the quality of shareholders as of the Reference Date.

General powers of attorney failing to contain at least the information above will not be binding for the Company. The general power of attorney cannot be used if the attorney has a conflict of interest that may occur especially in the following cases:

- c) is an employee or auditor of the Company or of a majority shareholder or a controlled entity, according to the provisions of letter a);
- d) is the spouse, relative or up to fourth degree in-laws inclusively of one of the natural persons specified under letters a)-c).

In case the power of attorney names several substitute attorneys, the order in which they will carry out the mandate will also be set.
