

Răzvan-Florin Olosu-Ittu – Non-executive and Independent Member

Răzvan-Florin Olosu-Ittu is an executive with more than 30 years of international experience in technology, telecommunications, and strategic investments. Throughout his career, he has held top management positions at Nokia Corporation, including Managing Director of Nokia Germany and Vice President & Member of the Executive Board of the Nokia Multimedia Group, overseeing multi-billion-euro operations and thousands of employees. He founded and led several technology companies, including Novero Group and Metromind Technologies, successfully completing development and exit processes. He is currently the founder, CEO, and Chairman of Blue Dot Holdings & Management BV Group, with activities in software, AI, electronics, telecommunications, medical technology, and automotive.

He is a graduate of RWTH Aachen (Diplom-Ing. in Electrical Engineering and Technical Computer Science) and holds an MBA from INSEAD, Fontainebleau. He served as an Honorary Professor at Ruhr-University Bochum, where he taught international strategic management and digital strategy. His expertise includes international leadership, strategy, finance, M&A, post-merger integration, and digital transformation, with experience in coordinating global operations and developing strategic partnerships.